

Assignment 0: Effort Tracking

Objective: Track your effort in terms of time, task, and nature of work.

Document your personal effort on your project repository in terms of task and effort. You will do this every week! This effort will be accumulated throughout the semester to reflect on the relation of effort the the type of work.

For each week, write the following whenever you do work on your project:

- Task
- Duration
- Type of work

Before class:

- summarize the weekly effort
- summarize team effort
- determine where you are in terms of your project development
